To Whom it may concern,

I am writing to you today in regards to Docket No. 92-90 concerning the restrictions on person-to-person solicitations of residential homes.

I would like to inform you that I am a real estate professional and a key part of the residential real estate business involves using the telephone for person-to-person solicitations.

I ask of you, the commission, not to pass any restrictions on person-to-person solicitations of residential homes, as this is very important to our everyday business practices. The telephone enables us to reach people that we otherwise could not. We provide a valuable service to them. We offer free professional advice to those in need. I also believe that this Docket No. 92-90 would contribute more hardships in an already tough market.

Thank you in advance for your time and attention to this extremely important issue.

Thank you again for your time,

SHANNON & LUCHS

Dear Sir:

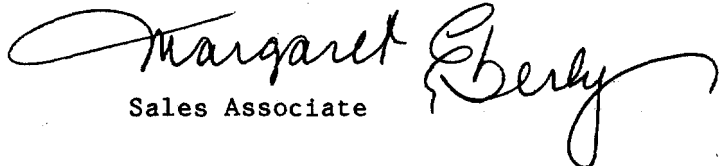

This letter is in response to the impending decision before the FCC to restrict person to person telephone solicitations. I strongly urge serious consideration be given to rejecting this proposal in light of it's importance to the real estate industry.

The most important tool for professional REALTORS is the telephone. Curtailing use of this extremely important instrument could radically affect all REALTORS, in general, but most importantly, the entire economy.

Why? Simply stated, the real estate industry plays an integral part in boosting the American economy. Home buying and home-selling trigger employment of a variety of trades people (i.e. plumbers, carpenters, electricians, painters, title insurance personnel, attorneys, etc.); and it also generates retail sales activities such as the purchase of appliances, furnishings and other household items.

Professional REALTORS work hard to create a positive image in their local communities. Person to person calls are a critical part of the homesale and homebuying process. Support the American dream of home ownership. Support your local REALTOR by rejecting the proposal to restrict our trade.

Sincerely,
C.M. Detweiler, Inc. REALTOR

Gentlemen:

Docket No. 92-90, Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991

As Realtors, we work long hard hours, seven days a week in order to earn an honest living.

Don't restrict our ability to use the telephone for person-to-person solicitations with any further regulations.

We are opposed to Docket No. 92-90, Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, and all other unnecessary government regulations which have an adverse effect on our livelihood.

Sincerely,

James L. Manley

Dear Sir:

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

Would you kindly clarify the Telephone Consumer Protection Act in detail? Also when exactly will the "DO NOT CALL" list be activated? And how will I go about putting my phone number on that list?

My husband and I have waited years (yay, sons!!) for someone or some Agency (Federal) to put a stop to this horrendous and unconscionable practice of UNSOLICITED "junk" telemarketing phone calls.

Public Utilities Commissioner (Texas) Marta Gray took put it aptly and succinctly:

HAVING A PHONE IN YOUR HOME DOESN'T MEAN YOU HAVE AGREED TO BE HARASSED.

We have been harassed long enough and a solution to this unwanted, unasked for invasion of my right to privacy is long, long overdue. Even having a non-published number has not stopped these unsolicited calls! The "rights" of the snail darters are protected, should we humans expect any less??!!

Would appreciate hearing from your agency at their earliest convenience with all and any pertinent information.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,

(Mrs) B. Kroll
